OTHER BUSINESS:

Ryon Hadley: gave a monthly statistic update. Nyx, the canine officer, has growths in her mouth. She is being watched and we may need to switch dogs with her brother that is also going through the training.

Valerie Claussen: the planning commission approved the event center on Pleasant View Drive. October 1st is the Walking Path open house. Mailers have been sent out. October is planning month. In October the city council will be having their Open Meetings training, a public hearing on the 2700 N CDA, and the transportation fee analysis regarding the life and costs of our roads. The RFP for the website went out. The Skyline Drive open house is November 18th. The water feasibility study should be done by December.

CM Burns: the shop campus is looking better.

Melinda Greenwood: In mid-October we should start seeing the shop fence going up. An updated on the road maintenance projects was given. There may be an additional $13K-$15K extra for another inch of asphalt on 800 W. The newsletter will be going out next week. Be aware that you cannot use your city emails to advocate the transportation proposition but you can use your personal emails.

CM Pitman: the North View Senior Citizens will be having their annual boutique and yard sell November 7th.

Mayor Mileski: we need to make the old city office area look prettier. Let's have a xeriscape design contest. I sit on the POST council. The sheriff is concerned with the taking of prescription drugs by potential police officers too far when narcotics are the concern. I am the 911 Dispatch Chair. The health department's building will be upgraded at a cost of $386K and it not put out to a $9 million bond. The computer change from Versa Term to Spillman is going well. It will be live in March. Training starts in January.

Adjournment: 7:44 P.M.
